Senior Notes

Our graduating class, the 74th at C.H.A., started the year with twenty-one members. With subtractions for one reason or another, our number resulted at fifteen.

This small group, however, have held outstanding positions in the school. Five commissioned and five noncommissioned cadet officers are represented. Seniors include some good athletes with five football lettermen, three basketball lettermen and three baseball lettermen among the group. Seniors are also prominent in the activities of the music department, furnishing choir members and the instrumental soloist with the choir. Two seniors are on the rifle team. One senior completed the N.R.O.T.C. requirements for the scholarship.

All in all, we are the same as seniors the world over, flashing rings, enjoying privileges, looking forward to graduation, and making plans for the future.

We will leave this, our Alma Mater, with the world at our feet and high hopes for the future, confident that, "in ourselves our future lies."

Junior Notes

Ours, the Junior class of '53, has been one of the largest in the history of Chamberlain-Hunt Academy. It numbers boys who have gained high honor in athletics, scholarship, popularity, and military. Three boys who won honors in the Who's Who Contest were Duncan McLaurin: Best Athlete, Best Looking, Don Adams: Most Courteous; and Harry Simcox: Most Popular with Boys. In football we have ten lettermen, eight of whom received their initial award; one receiving his second, and another his third. In basketball our class has six lettermen, two two-year and four one-year lettermen. We also had a member of our class, Duncan McLaurin, voted Most Valuable Player in the Washington Invitational Tourney.

The Class started forming when Sammy Shaifer appeared in '47. It added another member, Steele Clay, the next year, but it really started shaping up when Himel, Pylate, Simcox, and Nunez arrived in '49. Its latest members have been added during '52 and '53.

The school started a new tradition this year by allowing Juniors to get their class rings a year earlier than in former years. The '53 Juniors now face the problem of raising money for a Junior-Senior Prom, to which each Junior and Senior looks forward at the end of each year.

The Juniors of '53 salute the out-going Seniors of C.H.A.

Asked by a friend what difference there was between an educated man and an uneducated one, Aristotle is reputed to have replied – "The difference is that between the living and the dead"!

Is not this somewhat grim estimate of the value of education worthy of serious thought by students, parents and teachers?
