Dedication

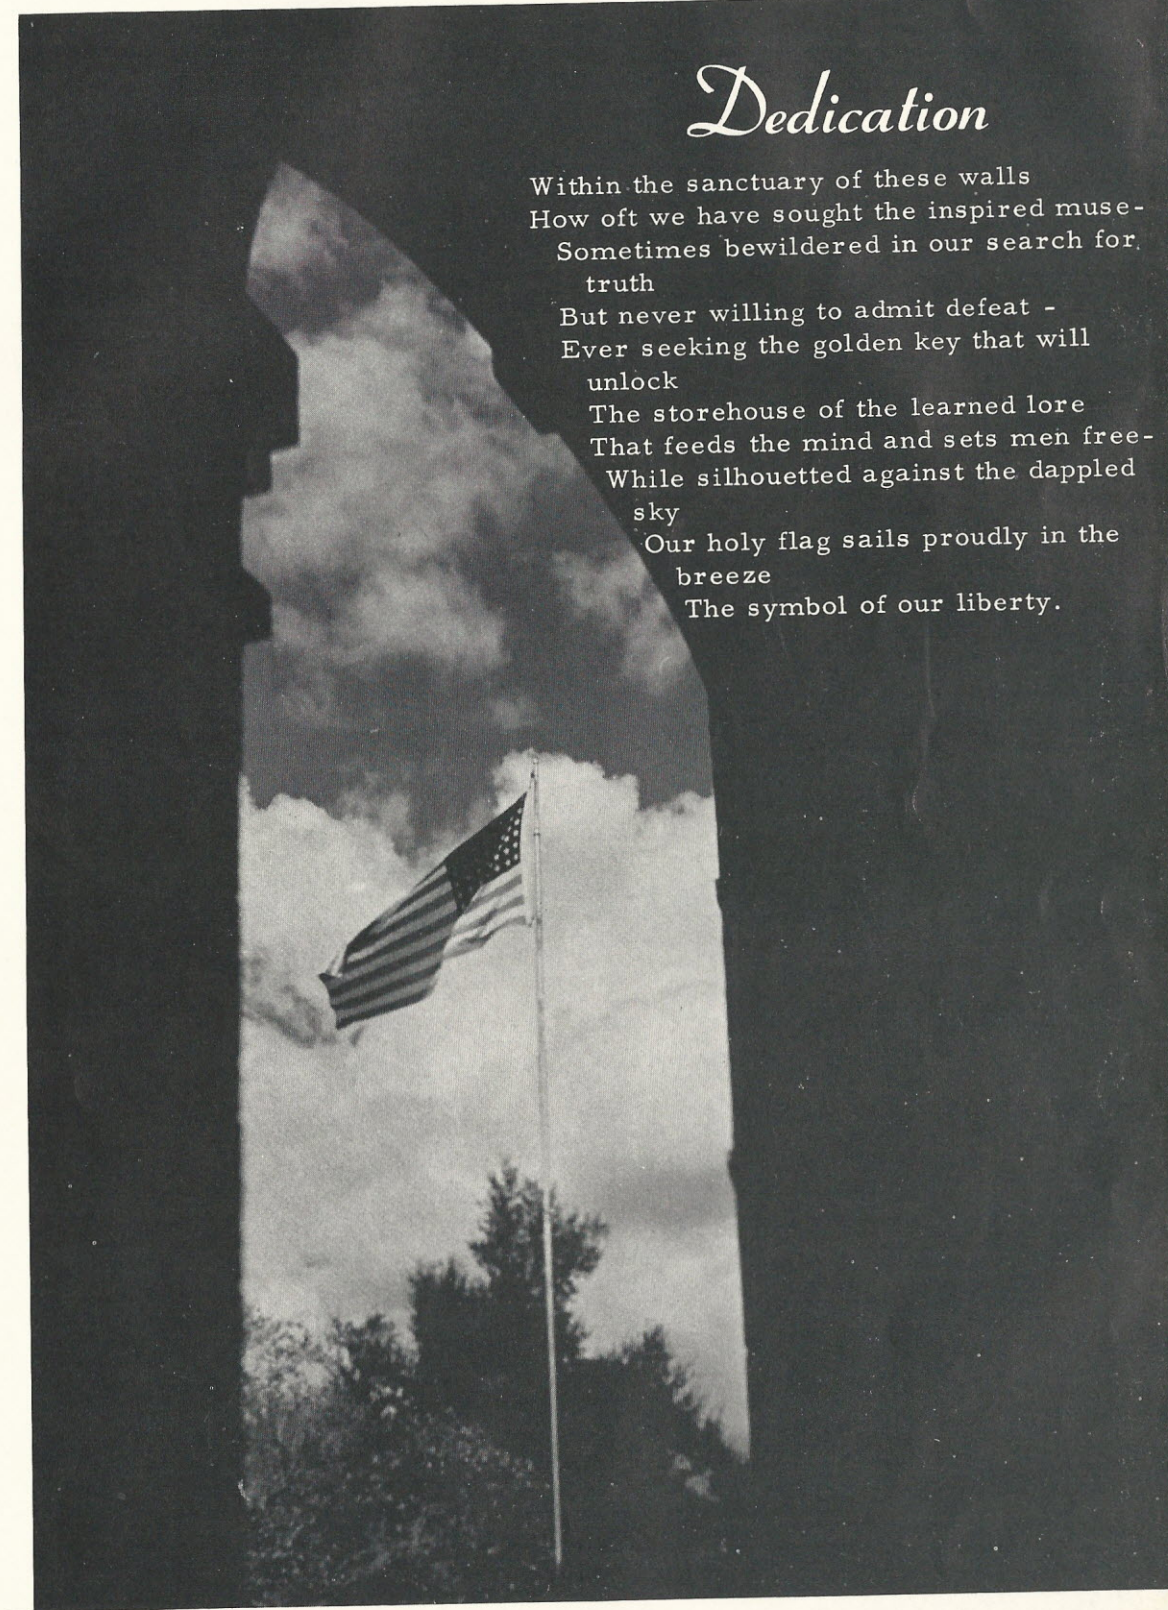

Within the sanctuary of these walls
How oft we have sought the inspired muse - Sometimes bewildered in our search for truth

But never willing to admit defeat - Ever seeking the golden key that will unlock

The storehouse of the learned lore
That feeds the mind and sets men free - While silhouetted against the dappled sky

Our holy flag sails proudly in the breeze

The symbol of our liberty.

ing of the youth of our state, while we see in his liberality an individual interest such as must have inevitable influence in shaping the future of the Chamberlain-Hunt-Academy.
Resolved further, That an engraved copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Mr. Craig by the Secretary of this Board.

Charter of Chamberlain-Hunt Academy and Amendments thereto.
Chapter CXVII - Laws of the State of Mississippi Regular Session of Legislature held at Jackson Miss. Oct. 1891
An act to incorporate the Trustees of the Chamberlain-Hunt Academy Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That there be established at some eligible point within the bounds of the Territory of Mississippi to be designated by said Territory, an institution of liberal Christian learning to be known as The Chamberlain-Hunt Academy in memory of the first president, and of the most liberal patron of Oakland College, which institution shall be under the care and supervision of the said Territory of Mississippi.
Section 2. Be it further enacted, That Rev.
Joseph B. Stratton D.D., Isaac C. Fallood, Oliver Williams, Martin J. Gardner,
John W. Anderson, Rev. T. C. Planché, Dr. R. S. Wharton, Rev. S. R. Weston, and their successors, duly elected or chosen as hereafter provided for, be and they
