A Century To Celebrate

1879 History 1979

Chamberlain-Hunt Academy, chartered in 1877, has been in continuous operation since 1879 at Port Gibson, Mississippi. Owned and operated by the Presbyterian Church, Synod of the Mid-South, it is one of the oldest educational institutions controlled by that body. It is the successor to Oakland College, founded in 1830 but discontinued in 1871. The Name honors Dr. Jeremiah Chamberlain, first president of Oakland College, and Mr. David Hunt, its generous benefactor.

Chamberlain-Hunt has, since its inception, endeavored to be, as called for in its charter, "an institution of liberal Christian learning." It is to date a college preparatory school for boys and girls. The energies of its staff are dedicated to molding good character in young people during the formative years of their lives.

Military training is required of all cadets. Besides learning self-discipline and developing leadership, a cadet learns to accept responsibility, to take and give orders, to practice cleanliness, punctuality, and courtesy.

THE LIGHT OF EDUCATION

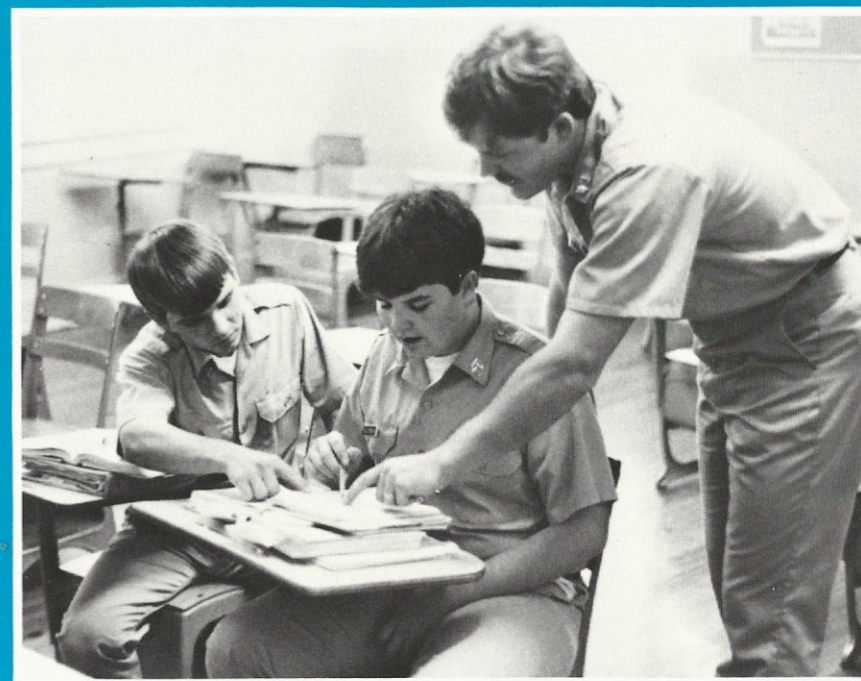

"Knowledge sheds a light where before there was darkness." Teachers have been called the utensils of knowledge, imparting educating as best they can to their students. At C.H.A. teachers realize that education extends beyond the classroom and offer their time as well, as their knowledge for the benefit of the students.

Without teacher sponsorship school organizations would not be able to function. Coaches spent much after school time in training and preparing our athletes for competition. Without the contributions of the dedicated teachers, educational activities would surely have been routined and limited.

SPIRIT ON THE RISE

This year C.H.A. students had a change in pace. For the first in years the students elected a Student Council. Students were more involved than ever before with Pep-Rallies, Class tournaments, Senior Auctions, Money raising projects and big support at Jr. and Sr. High ballgames. Military officers were reduced in numbers, but the military drills were more strict and precise than before. Seniors proved spirit by decorating the water tower adjacent from the campus.

INTRODUCTION

"Beauty is no quality in things themselves; it exists merely in the mind which contemplates them." Hume's famous saying was taken up by the true theory of aesthetics first became possible. But Kant the way of aesthetics; for its full development as a observation and research were necessary, and uncoordinated has been so much of this mission to define beauty or to construct a theory of a psychological ground- work that no general theory is possible. What tendency is there in the history of art? It has been described as a series of experiments and the history of the human mind.

To the Senior Class of 1979

From
The Junior Class

You who go before us
Leave us behind in a wave of tears and anxiety
And yet,
You leave a legacy of Hope and Love.
You have shown us the way;
Sometimes kindly,
Sometimes sharply.

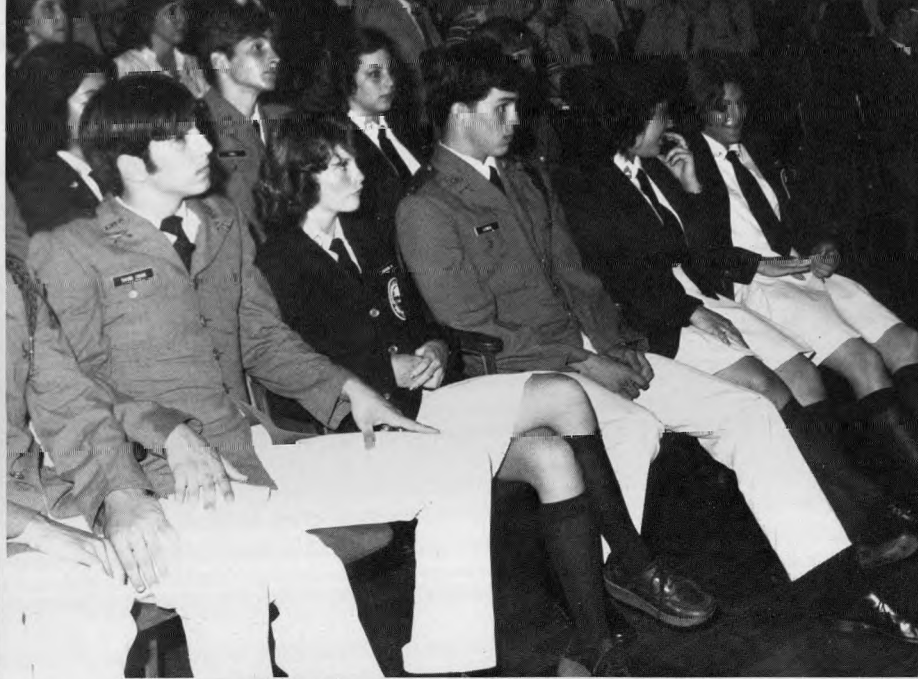

Through you we have found many answers.
You go forth to taste the wine
We have yet to taste.

Sometimes bitter,
Sometimes sweet —
May you drink deeply of the sweet
And taste little of the bitterness.

Inspirations are few in this life,
But you have been one to us;
Sharing good times and bad
And offering us an example without pretension.
May you offer to the world
The things you gave to us —
Hope, spirit, pride, love, and dignity —
And may God bless each step you take
As you journey through your life.

Senior Flag Ceremony

One of the most memorable events of the evening is the burning of the flag that has flown on front campus during the Seniors' last year. After forming a circle around the flag, it is ignited — this year it was ignited by Cadet second Lieutenant Mark Bunn, chosen by the Senior class — and while it burns, "Taps" is played — this year by Cadet Captain Kevin Scott. After the flag is gone the Cadets Pass-In Review for the final time, and then are dismissed from the field — to the traditional Senior party!!

Proclamation

Hear ye! Hear ye! This 13th Day of May in the year of our Lord 1979 is hereby officially proclaimed Chamberlain-Hunt Academy's Centennial Year.

Whereas Chamberlain-Hunt Academy was founded by our forefathers in the year of our Lord 1879, and whereas Dr. Jeremiah Chamberlain, a pioneering Presbyterian, founded Oakland College in 1830, and whereas Mr. David Hunt contributed generously to help establish Oakland College, and whereas the funds realized from the sale of Oakland College in 1867 to the state of Mississippi were dedicated to Christian education, and whereas these funds were used to start this Academy of Learning in Port Gibson, Mississippi, in 1879, and was given the names of these two Christian men, and whereas this Christian Academy has through a century of service educated and prepared thousands of young people for life, and whereas this Academy has graduated over 1,600 young people who have entered every college and university in the South with credit, and whereas these graduates have in the past and are today filling positions of honor and trust wherever found,
and whereas there must be more than ordinary merit about an institution that can operate so long and produce such splendid types of manhood and womanhood as are found in the graduates of this Academy,

IT IS HEREBY PROCLAIMED that on this Centennial Proclamation Day we remember with grateful hearts the work of so many whose vision of greatness has brought forth in these hundred years such a school as we find Chamberlain-Hunt Academy to be today,
AND IT IS FURTHER PROCLAIMED that Almighty God, our Heavenly Father be given the praise, the honor, the glory, and thanksgiving for bestowing His blessings upon this Christian institution during the years of reconstruction, years of famine and depression, years of war and poverty, years of plenty and peace,

AND IT IS FURTHER PROCLAIMED that this Proclamation Day we not only remember our proud past but we affirm our belief in Chamberlain-Hunt Academy's continued service to young people in the name of the Church,
Whereas in this year of our Lord 1979 we also move into Chamberlain-Hunt's second century, and whereas, accepting the responsibility bestowed upon us, we express full confidence that we will, with the Power and the Grace of God, continue to provide the kind of Christian education the new generations will also be proud of,

IT IS HEREBY PROCLAIMED that our cup of joy overflows with Thanksgiving to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. God be praised forever and ever!

Whereas these 44 young people seated before us today have completed this stage of their education at this Christian institution during the Centennial Year and are joining that great group of graduates of the past,

WE DO HEREBY JOYOUSLY MOVE FORWARD TO THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES FOR THE CLASS OF 1979. Hallelujah and Amen!

Proud Of Our Past

Confident For The Future

THE CHA ALMA MATER

Words: Landrum Salley

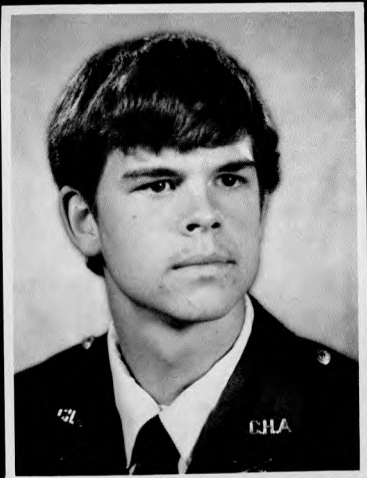

Music: Archie Boothe

Nearby the mighty Mississippi, couched in rolling hills,
Still stands our dear old Alma Mater, scene of heartfelt thrills;
Which come when we recall the friendships, formed in work and play,
Among cadets and faculty at our own CHA.

To Thee we bring unceasing homage and enduring love;
For Thee we seek the blessing of the Higher Power above;
Because of Thee, we face the future with a firmer stand;
We will, dear CHA, be true to Thee throughout the land.
