ALMA MATER

Words:
Landrum Salley

Music:
Archie Boothe

Nearby the mighty Mississippi, couched in rolling hills,
Still stands our dear old Alma Mater, scene of heartfelt thrills,
Which come when we recall the friendships formed in work and play
Among cadets and faculty at our own C.H.A.

To thee we bring unceasing homage and enduring love;
For thee we seek the blessing of the Higher Power above;
Because of thee we face the future with a firmer stand;
We will, dear C.H.A., be true to thee throughout the land.

The Building Of

The architectural plans worked out by the CHA Board, the faculty, Mr. J.J. McComb, (CHA Alumnus, former Claiborne County resident) and Mr. McComb's New York architect, provided one of the most interesting Queen Anne structures in the State of Miss.

It was basically symmetrical, but was very picturesque because it had a turret and a clock tower of different heights prominent on the front. The high roof was covered with dormers and tall chimneys.

The architectural plan for the new location of CHA at Woodstock on the southern limits of Port Gibson began to be realized with the building of McComb Building in 1900, named in honor of J.J. McComb for his generous gift towards its erection, and Guthrie Hall in 1901, named in honor of Professor W.C. Guthrie, President of CHA. The frame house for the president to the southwest of Guthrie was built in 1902.

When it became necessary to build another dormitory, Gage Hall was constructed south of Guthrie in 1948 and named in honor of Judge R.D. Gage, Chairman of the Board from 1924-1950.

An Academy

With the fire of 1924, on a very cold night in January, upon renovation, many of the architectural details of McComb Building were omitted.

At the time McComb Building was renovated, Redus Hall just to the north, was built that in 1926. McComb Building was located in the heart of the campus, with Redus to the north and Guthrie to the south, and functioned as the heart of the school.

Though future buildings extended to the southeast, there is still the "concept" that McComb Building is the heart of the school because it contains the library, the Senior High classrooms, the auditorium – chapel, and the Administration offices, and is the "heart of the campus."

Our Campus

When in 1971, the Board affirmed that any qualified student would be admitted to the Academy, the faculty residence on McComb Ave, east of the campus was converted into a "makeshift" dormitory for girls. When that became full, the Board authorized the construction of a girls dormitory which when completed in 1975 was named Kathleen McKenzie Dormitory. It is located north of the President's Home.

A Science Building was constructed east of Jenkins Infirmary in 1972 and dedicated to the memory of R.D. Gage, Jr., Chairman of the Board from 1957-1970. This building today is used also for Junior High Classes.

The Bolling Dining Hall, located east of Science Bldg., was completed in 1976 and named for the Rev. Richard A. Bolling, a 1905 Graduate of CHA and a valued member of the Board for many years.

We Build

A brick colonial home for the president was erected across from McComb Avenue north of the front campus in 1971.

A gymnasium and recreation building was constructed east of Gage Hall in 1956 and named in honor and memory of Col. J.W. Kennedy, President from 1921-42.

In 1964, an infirmary was built on the east side of Kennedy Gym and named for Dr. W.N. Jenkins, a long-time school physician and member of the Board. A plaque in the infirmary expresses appreciation to the Women of the Church of Ms. for their donations of energy and funds towards financing this building.

Reception honors Seniors In Mr. Kinser's home

Judges: Mrs. Disharoon and Mrs. Etheridge

Senior Day

Friday, May 23, 1980

The day began with the traditional Senior Breakfast when the Academy honors the graduating class in Boling Dining Hall. The tables were decorated with miniature pot plants, a gift to the seniors from Mrs. Jane DeWitt. A delicious meal, family style, was served by Mrs. Mary Ann Hill to seniors and faculty. A morning devotional was used as place markers.

The day for Seniors was spent signing memory books, girls' blouses, boys' shirts, visiting with classmates, and "goofing off" while underclassmen were still in school.

Seniors Retiring The Flag

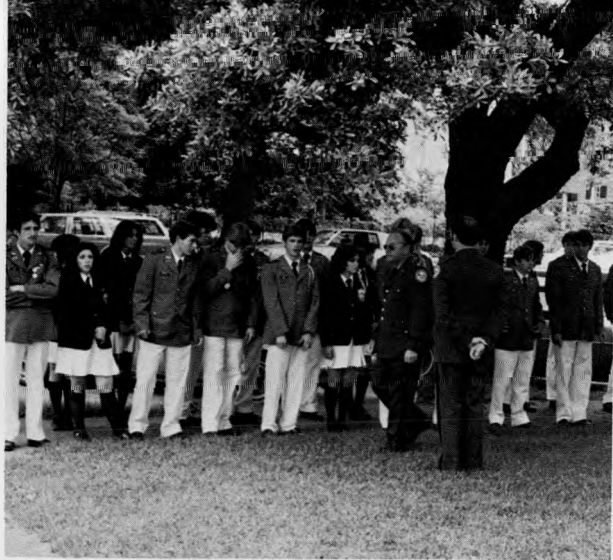

Just as the Senior Class departs Chamberlain-Hunt Academy, so does the flag that has flown on Front Campus during their Senior year. The flag is disposed of in the correct military manner. It is ignited, and while the flag is burning the Seniors salute to pay their respects. "Taps" was played this year by Cadet Jud Ingram. The new flag, presented by the family of Cadet Ricci Webb of Bowling Green, Ky., was raised the same evening and was flown during the Final Retreat. It will fly on campus during the next school year, 1980-1981.

Welcome to the closing of a chapter of our lives and the beginning of a new one. As we go our separate ways, we have many feelings of joy, sadness, and anxiety. We leave behind many dear friends and go forth to make new ones as we enter adulthood.

Our members of CHA will be cherished and our experience here will provide a springboard for many new experiences. The knowledge gained from our teachers, the military department, and life in general at CHA will support us in our endeavors for the future no matter what may be.

To our teachers, "Thank you for providing the inspiration, moral support and guidance we have needed in our high school years."

To our friends and families, "Thank you for providing the support we've needed through algebra exams, final retreat parades, band contests and the other functions which allowed us a well rounded and meaningful, if not hectic, high school career."

To our graduating class, "Best of luck, and God be with you in all you ever do. May your future years be as happy and successful as the past ones."

*Marilynne Monique Nelson
Salutatorian
Class of 1980*

It is so hard to believe how fast the years have gone by. Here we are ready to graduate.

It is also hard to leave and say goodbye to a place that has been a part of our lives for so long. None of us will ever forget Chamberlain-Hunt and all of our friends, and memories.

My memories will be good ones. From my first day at Chamberlain-Hunt to my last. All of the military, studying, exams, football, band, basketball, cheering, and who could ever forget our great track team. Our hopes and dreams. After all, these years have been some of the "best years of our lives." These are only a few of the things time will allow us to reminisce, but we will always remember all of our experiences fondly.

Before I leave Chamberlain-Hunt, I would like to thank all of the teachers who have helped us achieve this goal. It is through all of their work, dedication, and concern for us that we have come this far. Because of their work we have grown wiser and more knowledgeable. So that in the future we will have the confidence and drive to better our future education and goals in life.

I thank my parents for their love and support through the years. It has meant so much to me to have them with and behind me all the way. I am so thankful because I know they will be there to support me in the future too.

Finally, I would like to thank God. Without Him, and my faith in Him, I would be nothing!

To my fellow graduates: it is going to be so different not being around you all every day, having classes with you, and being together as a group. I hope you will remember this quote:

*"Give to the World
the best you have
and the best will come back to you."*

by M. Bridges

*I hope the best will always come back to all of you in the future. Congratulations and Good luck!
May God Bless You All - Thank You.*

Our Year Ends – Farewell

One of the most thought-provoking and emotion-filled parts of graduation is the retiring of the flag by the members of the Senior Class. An Old tradition, the ceremony brings tears to those of us who participate by understanding the significance of it to the departing Senior Cadets.

*"I am not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday and I love today."

THE CHA ALMA MATER

Words: Landrum Salley

Music: Archie Boothe

Nearby the mighty Mississippi, couched in rolling hills,
Still stands our dear old Alma Mater, scene of heartfelt thrills;
Which come when we recall the friendships, formed in work and play,
Among cadets and faculty at our own CHA.

To Thee we bring unceasing homage and enduring love;
For Thee we seek the blessing of the Higher Power above;
Because of Thee, we face the future with a firmer stand;
We will, dear CHA, be true to Thee throughout the land.
