FERN WESTBROOK DAY

SEPTEMBER 21, 1982

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Chamberlain-Hunt Academy was established in 1879 to serve the educational needs of our young in a Christian environment, and has continued to meet that challenge for more than a century, with success,

WHEREAS: Aspects of the CHA endeavor are to promote the spiritual, academic, physical and personal maturity of its students,

WHEREAS: On occasions a CHA student overcomes great difficulties and extreme personal trauma to demonstrate those honorable qualities embraced by this institution to excell in leadership and support of the many activities of the academy, to be beloved by the entire CHA family, admired and respected for fidelity and friendship,

WHEREAS: Having a student of this academy who demonstrates these commendable qualities and reflects a great credit on the institution and the individual,

NOW THEREFORE: Fern Westbrook, having been identified as such an individual of these qualities — having overcome physical limitations and extraordinary family trauma; is hereby recognized as the recipient of the Presidential commendation which accords this highest of accolades.

PROCLAMATION: Be it known to all, that Fern Westbrook, having distinguished herself at Chamberlain-Hunt Academy in the fields of academics, academy activities, sportsmanship and friendship, shall be forever remembered for her outstanding tenure at the school. By the authority vested in the office of the President of this institution by the Board of Trustees, I htereore proclaim September 21 as "Fern Westbrook Day" at this institution.

Done this ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-two.

Homecoming Cheerleaders

The 1982 Homecoming activities started Friday afternoon with the senior football players and the cheerleaders holding a pep rally on the football field. Later on the Homecoming Court met at Mr. and Mrs. James Beasley's house for pictures.

The Court was honored by the Marching Cavaliers and CHA's first Flag Corps as they walked across the field. The senior football players stood just behind the court as honor escorts.

The Wildcats won 6-0 against Prentiss Christian. After the game, a dance was held in the gym, where everyone had a good time.

DR. CHARLES E. BRYANT
PRESIDENT
CHAMBERLAIN-HUNT
ACADEMY

President's Message:

This academic year has been one of great significance to all of us. It has been my privilege to work with you in the honored traditions of this institution.

As we recognize the 104 years of Chamberlain-Hunt Academy, it is most fitting to reflect on the success of alumni and the milestones of the academy in its successful endeavors to provide a wholesome education.

You of the class of 1983 are now alumni and proudly join the thousands of alumni of this historic institution. Yours has been an effort of labor, sacrifice and diligence, justly deserving the recognition of highest esteem from this institution.

I trust that your educational and personal development endeavors at this institution have been an enriching experience that will serve you well all the years of your life. To those of you who will continue at Chamberlain-Hunt, I want to urge you to participate to the fullest in your total academic life by becoming involved in the academy activities and campus life programs.

It has been good to work with a dedicated and committed Board of Trustees, faculty and staff. All of the CHS family deserves accolades of praise for a job well done. Trustees have devoted so much of their time and resources to provide for the development and academic programs at CHA.

Graduates, Hail and Farewell — Be Proud.

'til we meet again.
