

Cadet Weekly

January 10-16, 2011

Week 22

CHAMBERLAIN - HUNT

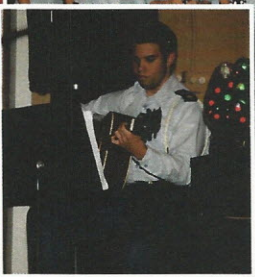

CHRISTIAN MILITARY BOARDING

Dates to Remember:

Academic Honors Weekend	Januray 28-30
Phone Calls	Feburay 6
Cadets Leave for Break, 1200	Feburay 11
Cadets Report Back, 1200-1600	Feburay 21
Crusader Challenge	March 14-18
Military Weekend	March 18-20

Practice Makes Perfect

On Friday, December 10th, Chamberlain-Hunt held the fall music recital. Cadets and Brashear girls practiced diligently all semester and were ready to show off what that learned. They sounded great! There were both individual performances on piano, guitar and drums, as well as small ensembles performing together.

Movie Night Under the Pavilion

On Saturday, December 11th, Cadets huddled under the pavilion for a movie night. They had their sleeping bags ready and hot chocolate to keep them warm. The Cadets had glow sticks to light up the night while a the movie was playing. After the movie finished the Cadets had a great time playing in the snow from a snow machine.

This Week's Scripture & Catechism

Exodus 34:27-28

And the Lord said to Moses, "Write these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel." And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

WSC 36 Where is the moral law summarily comprehended?

A. The moral law is summarily comprehended in the Ten Commandments.

Senior Profile: Cadet SGT MAJ Crusader Dwiggins

Cadet Sgt Maj Crusader Dwiggins, from Southborough, MA, has been a Cadet for a year and a half. He is in Charlie Company and holds the rank of Sergeant Major.

Cadet Crusader Dwiggins' military achievement has earned him awards. He was awarded the French Homer Poe Award for his military excellence. He also completed the Crusader Challenge, which is the most difficult military challenge at Chamberlain-Hunt. He worked at the Academy over the summer as a Jr. TAC. Cadet Crusader Dwiggins is also on the Honor Roll. His favorite class is Worldview with Maj Straka. He finds it interesting learning about different religions.

Being athletic comes naturally to Cadet Crusader Dwiggins. He has played soccer and basketball for many years and is also a member of the track and field team. He represented Chamberlain-Hunt in pole vaulting and went to state finals last year.

One of Cadet Crusader Dwiggins' favorite things about Chamberlain-Hunt is the many friends he has made with Cadets from different states. He now has friends from all over the country. He advises the other Cadets "to do well while you're here and do not fight the system."

After graduating from Chamberlain-Hunt, Cadet Crusader Dwiggins plans to travel to England this summer with friends. In the fall he plans to attend Boston University to major in psychology.

A New Semester is Here!

There are twenty-nine new Cadets who were promoted into the battalion at Chamberlain-Hunt following Christmas. They arrived on Tuesday, January 4th, in the bone-chilling weather and pulled through their basic training. They learned the Cadet Handbook, the policies of Chamberlain-Hunt, the military regimen, and the protocol. They participated in many group drills, close order drills and physical training as part of their Cadet training.

On Friday, January 7th, they were met by the returning Cadets who were coming back from Christmas break. The returning Cadets participated in a spring semester reorientation in the Wilderness with the new recruits. To ensure that everyone is on the same page, remembers protocol and is prepared for the start of school, they worked together with the new Cadets on team-building and orientation drills.

Cadet Weekly

January 15-21, 2010

Week 23

CHAMBERLAIN - HUNT

CHRISTIAN MILITARY BOARDING

Dates to Remember:

Academic Honors Weekend	Januray 28-30
Phone Calls	Feburay 6
Cadets Leave for Break, 1200	Feburay 11
Cadets Report Back, 1200-1600	Feburay 21
Crusader Challenge	March 14-18
Military Weekend	March 18-20

Second Annual Winter Formal

The ladies of Brashear Hall, along with ten Cadets, participated in the second Brashear Hall Winter Formal on Saturday, January 22nd. The banquet took place in the annex of The First Presbyterian Church. The Cadets looked handsome in their Class A uniforms, but the ladies stole the show. Everyone enjoyed the evening! Entertainment included a slide show featuring the twenty students and a lively Scottish barn dance led by LTC and Mrs. Quentin Johnston.

This Week's Scripture & Catechism

Matther 22:37

And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind."

WSC 42 What is the sum of the Ten Commandments?

A. The sum of the Ten Commandments is, To love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our mind; and our neighbors as ourselves.

Senior Profile: Cadet CPT Harryman

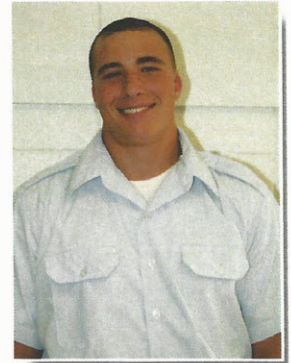

Cadet CPT Harryman, from Watertown, NY, holds the rank of captain and is in Alpha Company.

Cadet Harryman is an excellent student who excels in the classroom. He maintained a 4.14 GPA through the first quarter and earned a spot on the President's List. His favorite class is Worldview with MAJ Straka. Cadet Harryman said he enjoys Worldview because it challenges him to think and question the reason for the belief he holds

A natural athlete, Cadet Harryman enjoys football and wrestling. This year was his first time playing competitive basketball. He plans to run in the track team in the spring. Like most Cadets, Harryman's favorite time of day is break. He enjoys visiting with the other Cadets and just taking a break from class. One of his favorite activities here at Chamberlain-Hunt is senior night. It is a time when the seniors get to relax, hangout and visit with COL West. He also enjoys lifting weights and reading.

As his last high school year comes to a close, Cadet Harryman advises other Cadets to "follow the rules as it makes everything easier." He is considering the business program at Grace City College in PA, along with the possibility of joining an ROTC program.

Fats, Carbs & Proteins

Do you know how much protein your body needs? Friday, January 21st, Dr. John Wittle, DC DACBN from Atlanta, GA, explained to the Cadets how certain foods affect your body and the importance of good nutrition. The Cadets were very involved in the lecture. They asked questions and some Cadets helped out in demonstrations. Cadet Walls said "the lecture was very interesting and helpful. I now know the difference between fats, carbs, and proteins and how they affect my body." When the program ended, the senior Cadets, along with Dr. Wittle, were invited to COL West's house for refreshments and fellowship. Dr. Wittle also met with the entire kitchen staff to discuss healthy meal plans for the Cadets.

A Lesson in Etiquette

Select Cadets received a refresher on table manners. Thursday, January 20th, in preparation for the Winter Formal, ten Cadets were selected to participate in an etiquette class with Mrs. Cade. The selected Cadets sat at the banquet table in the White House behind full place settings in order to learn the proper etiquette for formal dining.

Cadet Weekly

January 24-30, 2010

Week 24

CHAMBERLAIN - HUNT

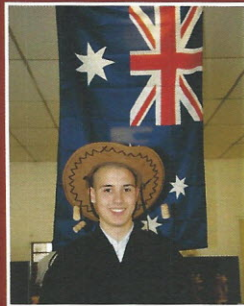

CHRISTIAN MILITARY BOARDING

Dates to Remember:

Academic Honors Weekend	January 28-30
Phone Calls	February 6
Cadets Leave for Break, 1200	February 11
Cadets Report Back, 1200-1600	February 21
Crusader Challenge	March 14-18
Military Weekend	March 18-20

G'day Mate!

Not everyone gets a chance to visit Australia, so in honor of Cadet Textor and Australia Day the Cadre brought Australia to Chamberlain-Hunt! On January 26th, the DFAC was decorated like The Outback and Cadet Textor had a great time teaching other Cadets how to throw a boomerang. The Cadets enjoyed meat pies for snack at break and delicious lamb stew with hummus and pita chips for lunch. For dinner the DFAC served a "bloomin" onion for an appetizer, shrimp, sirloin and kangaroo kebobs with pavlova for dessert. The Cadets were surprised to find out that they were eating kangaroo but many wanted seconds!

Men's Rally

MAJ McGee, MAJ Price and a select group of Cadets heard an inspirational lecture about the 19 Trials of Ministry taken from 1 Kings. On Friday, January 27th, the group traveled to Jackson, MS, to attend the Men's Rally at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Ligon Duncan, pastor at First Presbyterian Church, was the keynote speaker. He spoke on God's grace to his servants when times are hard. The Cadets were able to visit with church leaders, ask important questions and have a fun evening off campus.

This Week's Scripture & Catechism

Exodus 20:2

"I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery."

WSC43 What is the preface to the Ten Commandments?

A. The preface to the Ten Commandments is in these words, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Senior Profile: Cadet CPT Headlee

Cadet CPT Headlee, from Tucson, AZ, is in his second year at Chamberlain-Hunt. He is company commander for Charlie and holds the rank of captain.

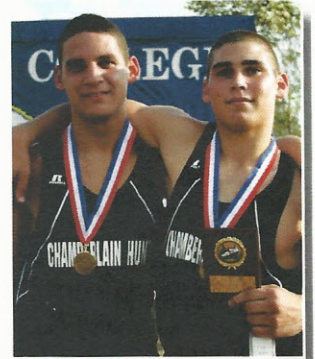

The cadre and administration have recognized Cadet Headlee's achievement with many awards including the Distinguished Performance Award, Honor Roll, Marksmanship Award, and the Achievement Award. His favorite class is Worldview, taught by MAJ Straka.

Cadet Headlee is involved with many activities at Chamberlain-Hunt. He ran in the cross-country team, which won first place in the district meet. He volunteers in the concession stand at the basketball games. He plans on joining Decurion this spring. Cadet Headlee also enjoys lifting weights and reading.

LTC Patterson has been a profound influence on Cadet Headlee. "He is someone I can look up to. He is always there when I need help." One of his favorite things at Chamberlain-Hunt is the bond that all the Cadets share. Cadet Headlee has made great friends at the Academy, both Cadets and cadre. He advises other Cadets "not to give up because Chamberlain-Hunt can help you achieve your goals."

Cadet Headlee has been inspired by the military life. He plans on joining the US Marines after graduation.

Elements of Art

MAJ Coon's art classes are studying the seven elements of art, which are color, texture, volume, line, form, shape and space. On Tuesday, January 24th, MAJ Coon's first period class made homemade play dough. They colored the play dough in primary colors: red, yellow and blue. With these three colors the Cadets made the entire color wheel. It is important to see where the colors fit into the wheel and to understand the concept that any color can be created with the three primary colors. The Cadets will be painting still life art, drawing 3-D pictures and working on other projects that involve the seven elements of art.

