Catechism Question and Bible Verse memory work for the Week of January 21

Q61. What is forbidden in the fourth commandment?

A. The fourth commandment forbiddeth the omission or careless performance of the duties required, and the profaning the day by idleness, or doing that which is in itself sinful, or by unnecessary thoughts, words, or works, about our worldly employments and recreations.

Amos 9:11. "Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord GOD, "when I will send a famine on the land - not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD."

MAJ Michael G. Herrin

A central figure in life at Chamberlain-Hunt is MAJ Mike Herrin, or "Rev" as he is often affectionately referred to by Cadets. MAJ Herrin serves as chaplain to the Academy and teaches economics to the seniors. Throughout his ten years in Port Gibson, he has actively engaged at ministry among the Cadets and cadre, in the Port Gibson community and in his denomination. He is a born pastor and teacher.

A south Georgia native, MAJ Herrin attended Washington & Lee University, where he earned his BA in history. He continued his history studies at Vanderbilt University, earning an MA. After teaching high school for several years in the Georgia state school system, MAJ Herrin moved to Mississippi to study theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. He earned his MDiv there before accepting the call to be the minister at Port Gibson's Presbyterian Church.

As Chamberlain-Hunt's chaplain, MAJ Herrin is a member of the Bible Department and the senior administrative team. He also teaches government and economics to seniors, as well as works with them in delivering their senior speeches. He preaches to the whole Chamberlain-Hunt community every Thursday in chapel and leads the Cadets in worship during Sunday evening vespers. His chapel sermons correspond to the Cadets' weekly Bible and catechism memory work and help to explain the concepts they express.

Beginning this week, the Chamberlain-Hunt website will provide links to MAJ Herrin's chapel sermons so parents and friends will be able to hear what the rest of the Chamberlain-Hunt community hears every Thursday. Look for the new chapel page on the website and listen to the sermons. Give us feedback on how the set-up works. E-mail cadetlife@chamberlain-hunt.com with your comments or questions.

Must See Mississippi 50 Favorite Places

A new book featuring 50 of Mississippi's favorite places was published at the end of 2007. This book highlights several locations from Port Gibson and the surrounding areas, including Chamberlain-Hunt, that are "must see" attractions for those looking to expand their knowledge in the rich culture and history of Mississippi. This book can be purchased from Amazon.com.
