Catechism Question and Bible Verse memory work for the Week of January 28

Q62. What are the reasons annexed in the fourth commandment?

A. The reasons annexed in the fourth commandment are, God's allowing us six days of the week for our own employments, his challenging a special propriety in the seventh, his own example, and his blessing the Sabbath day.

Deuteronomy 5:15. You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

Boys Becoming Men

Dr. R. Albert Mohler, Jr.

We had a very exciting day on campus this past Thursday. Dr. R. Albert Mohler, Jr. came to our campus to speak to our Cadets during chapel. He spoke about "Boys Becoming Men" and how each of them should grow in Christ and how to become the men which God intended for them to become. That sermon will be posted soon on our school website at www.chamberlain-hunt.com.

Dr. Mohler also did his nationwide radio broadcast from Chamberlain-Hunt's campus. You may go to his website at www.albertmohler.com and download the program for Jan. 24th. He interviewed COL Shane Blanton, the president of our school, and also spoke highly of his impressions of our school, its vision, and of the young men living and learning here.

Dr. R. Albert Mohler, Jr., serves as the ninth president of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary-the flagship school of the Southern Baptist Convention and one of the largest seminaries in the world.

Dr. Mohler has been recognized by such influential publications as Time and Christianity Today as a leader among American evangelicals. In fact, Time.com called him the "reigning intellectual of the evangelical movement in the U.S".

In addition to his presidential duties, Dr. Mohler hosts a daily live nationwide radio program on the Salem Radio Network. He also writes a popular blog and a regular commentary on moral, cultural and theological issues. Both can be accessed through Dr. Mohler's website, www.albertmohler.com. Called "an articulate voice for conservative Christianity at large" by The Chicago Tribune, Dr. Mohler's mission is to address contemporary issues from a consistent and explicit Christian worldview.

Widely sought as a columnist and commentator, Dr. Mohler has been quoted in the nation's leading newspapers, including The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, The Washington Post, The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and The Dallas Morning News. He has also appeared on such national news programs as CNN's "Larry King Live," NBC's "Today Show" and "Dateline NBC," ABC's "Good Morning America," "The NewsHour with Jim Lehrer" on PBS, MSNBC's "Scarborough Country" and Fox's "The O'Reilly Factor."

Dr. Mohler is a theologian and an ordained minister, having served as pastor and staff minister of several Southern Baptist churches. He came to the presidency of Southern Seminary from service as editor of The Christian Index, the oldest of the state papers serving the Southern Baptist Convention.
