Catechism Question and Bible Verse memory work for the Week of March 2:

- Q67. Which is the sixth commandment?
 A. The sixth commandment is, Thou shalt not kill. (Exodus 20:13)
- Q68. What is required in the sixth commandment?
 A. The sixth commandment requireth all lawful endeavours to preserve our own life, and the life of others.

Cultural Exposure at Chamberlain-Hunt

Exciting cultural opportunities are available at Chamberlain-Hunt, designed to stimulate Cadet interest in the world around them. Cadets in Advanced Art (pictured to the right and below) are making use of the new ceramics lab.

Cadets B. Rainer (LA) and T. Fulton (CA) work together to create a bowl on the new potter's wheel.

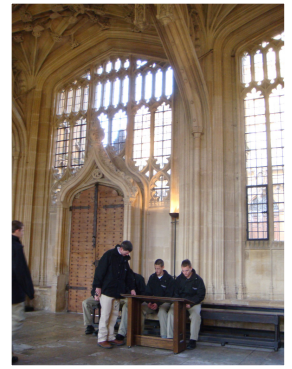

Cadet D. Hull (OK) wedges clay for his turn on the wheel.

Cadets in regular art classes enjoyed a week on the front lawn drawing landscapes with willow charcoal.

The weather was beautiful, and the Cadets produced some excellent artwork that will be posted on the parent's gallery this week.

On Friday, 7 March, seniors in the Worldview class will take a field trip to Jackson to see exhibits at the Mississippi Museum of Art. Accompanying them will be Worldview instructor MAJ Sam Davis and art instructor MAJ Jaime Coon.

Below are scenes from the trip to England. LTC Jack West and MAJ Keith Fraley took Cadets K. Chay (NV), C. Gary (LA), J. Hanks (MS), N. Looney (TN), C. Moffett (CA) and A. Thomas (CA) for an up-close and personal tour of the counties west of London. Not only did Cadets get to see the regular tourist sites, they had opportunities to meet English friends of LTC West and of MAJ Fraley, worship in an English church, and see inside an English home, an Eton College classroom and an Oxford college. This week, seven Cadets are in France with MAJs Blackwell and Jones and after Easter, MAJs Anderson and McGraw are taking Cadets to Israel.
