France Trip Recap

Here are scenes from last week's trip to France. MAJs Chris Blackwell and Julien Jones took Cadets K. Bosch (LA), J. Koers (CA), J. McMaster (SC), H. Robertson (MS), J. Walker (AL), C. Warren (TX) and R. Woods (AL) to MAJ Jones's family farmhouse in Branches, France. This beautiful home is made up of fantastic architecture, large fireplaces, a huge yard for playing badminton, a spa and a large loft for guest sleeping.

Imbibing both history and culture, Cadets toured important sites and cities in France. They spent a day at Versailles, roaming the beautiful gardens and eating scrumptious crepes. The next day they toured the World War I battlefield at Verdun. There the Cadets explored caves, bunkers and underground passageways remaining from the battle. Also, a blanket of snow fell, contributing to the memory of the meaningful experience. They spent the last day of the adventure in Paris. Among other things, Cadets toured Notre Dame, climbed the Eiffel Tower and marched through the Arc de Triomphe.

A great time was had by all and the memories of the trip will surely last a lifetime.

Anatomy Class

Cadets in MAJ Wilson's 9th grade biology class exchanged textbook diagrams for hands-on experience this week. Studying a unit on anatomy, Cadets dissected rats, separating the organs and identifying each of them for a grade. Cadet A. Baker (MS) carefully dissected his rat and removed the organs. Once accurately labeled, he presented his work to MAJ Wilson for grading.
