Paint Day

On November 1, three Cadets from the Honors Art program were chosen to participate in Port Gibson's Paint Day. The program was hosted by Keith Alford of Art 621 and proceeds from the event were donated to the Port Gibson Heritage Trust Fund's effort to support the Save Church Street Campaign.

From 10:00 am to 3:00, Cadets painted their chosen scenery in the town and even attracted some attention from local children who were curious about what they were doing. Cadets participating were M. Chavoustie (CO), B. Rainer (LA) and A. Thomas (CA). Cadets were able to paint alongside 4 other local artists which included their art teacher, MAJ Jaime Coon. A silent auction was held at the end of the evening at Georgia's at the Depot Restaurant. Each of the Cadets sold his piece at the auction.

MAJ Bill Hubbard

French Teacher

Our foreign language program grew this year with the addition of a new French teacher, MAJ Bill Hubbard. MAJ Hubbard comes to us from Jackson, Mississippi and is a graduate of the University of Mississippi where he received his Bachelor of Arts in French, with a minor in Biology.

His goal is to instill a desire in the Cadets to learn French and also to help them develop their skills to the highest level. "Many Cadets find the study of French to be fun and I want to make sure they have every opportunity to learn," says MAJ Hubbard. Cadet D. Bogenreif (CA) enjoys his French IV tutorial with MAJ Hubbard because they communicate only in French. This, says Cadet Bogenreif, has greatly improved his fluency.

In addition to teaching French, MAJ Hubbard, along with MAJ Davey Arwine, also new to Chamberlain-Hunt, have formed an outdoor club for the Cadets. This club includes fishing and camping excursions on the weekends, during which Cadets can learn many outdoor survival skills and safety practices.

His other interests include computers, music and photography. A Jackson native and veteran teacher, MAJ Hubbard loves Port Gibson and being a part of the cadre and mission at Chamberlain-Hunt.

The Hunt for the Head

When the moon is full and the temperature and humidity are just right, listen carefully for the hoof-beat of Samuel Mason's horse along the Natchez Trace. Mason is looking for his head. Soon, he will find it, just a mile off the Trace on the Chamberlain-Hunt campus. During Saturday's Scavenger Hunt in the Wilderness, Cadet T. Hanifi (MS) found Mason's head, winning points for Bravo Company, and next week, it will be installed for permanent display on a brick column. We'll tell you more about Mason, and his head, next week!
