Camping Trip

MAJ Hubbard took a group of Cadets camping Friday the 19th. The weather was cool but they gathered wood for a warm fire. The Cadets cooked out, baked apples and stayed in tents. They shared scary stories and drank hot chocolate. The Cadets brought their creativity to the woods and built chairs out of tree limbs. LTC Johnston tested out one of the chairs.

This Week's Scripture & Catechism

Romans 5:1

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

WSC 36 What are the benefits which in this life do accompany or flow from justification, adoption, and sanctification?

A. The benefits which in this life do accompany or flow from justification, adoption, and sanctification, are, assurance of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Ghost, increase of grace, and perseverance therein to the end.

Senior Profile: Cadet CPT Harrigan

Cadet CPT Harrigan, from Huntsville, AL, is in his first year as a Cadet at Chamberlain-Hunt. He is Company Commander for Bravo and holds the rank of Captain.

His hard work in the classroom has earned him a spot on the President's List. Cadet Harrigan's favorite class is Worldview, with MAJ Straka. He finds it interesting to learn about the different principles of Christianity as it applies to a young man's life.

Cadet Harrigan enjoys being active. He was a member of the cross-country team and has been member of the basketball team for many years. He also enjoys hiking, fishing and weight lifting.

Cadet Harrigan believe that he has already learned so much from the Academy. He said Chamberlain-Hunt inspires him to do well, and it gives him opportunities he did not know he had. His classmates see him as a fun guy to be around but also a good leader. He advises other Cadets "to make the most out of the situation at hand."

After graduating from Chamberlain-Hunt, he plans to join the ROTC program at Auburn University and major in Civil Engineering. Then he would like to go to law school with the goal of being a Property Lawyer.

Chamberlain-Hunt Thanksgiving Dinner

With Thanksgiving right around the corner, the Chamberlain-Hunt family celebrated by having a Thanksgiving dinner on Saturday, November, 20th. The Cadets dined in their full dress uniform. Hanging in the dining facility is a painting of a tree. The Cadets wrote what they were thankful for on colorful leaves and put them on the tree. During the family dinner the leaves were read aloud and Cadets offered personal prayers of thanks.

Bowl A Strike!

Saturday, November 20th the Cadet Corp went to Paradise Lanes in Raymond, MS for an afternoon of bowling. The Cadets had a fun time bowling, shooting pool and enjoying their time off campus.
