Alumni Day

On Saturday, 5 April, Chamberlain-Hunt hosted its annual Alumni Day Celebration. Many alumni from across the nation came to visit our campus, tour the new and old facilities, reminisce and meet the new Cadets who now live and walk the same campus that the alumni did so many years ago.

We were honored with a wide range of attendees from the '90's, 80's, 70's, 60's and 50's, but one special guest, Mr. John Armstrong, who graduated in 1941, was the earliest alumnus present. We were very honored to have him and all of the alumni to celebrate with us the many years Chamberlain-Hunt has served Cadets from far and wide.

Beginning the morning was registration and refreshments at the White House. There the alumni were pleased to review our new folio of senior class composites dating back to 1932. Next, they attended a presentation and slideshow in the auditorium where they were able to see photos from years gone by at Chamberlain-Hunt. Following the program, guests were escorted through a dormitory inspection, then down to the pavillion for Bar-be-que and fellowship with the young men now attending Chamberlain-Hunt. Stories were exchanged, and we even learned that mischief is not something that only current Cadets are capable of.
