Colonels' Open Houses

Alpha

COL West, Chamberlain-Hunt's president, hosted Alpha Company at his home. The Cadets enjoyed nachos and cheese dip, chocolate covered strawberries, brownies, hot apple cider, and lots more! The Cadets were well-entertained by COL West with a fireside chat and a Christmas Story.

Bravo

LTC Patterson, the commandant, hosted Bravo Company at the White House. They had great food and drink! The commandant's family joined the festivities and the Cadets shared memorable Christmas stories with each other.

Charlie

LTC Johnston, the principal, hosted Charlie Company in the conference room, which was warmly decorated of COL West's office. They enjoyed several varieties of sweets and a hot drink. Of the three companies, Charlie Company did the most singing- The 12 Days of Christmas, Jingle Bells and Silent Night.

Port Gibson Christmas Parade

On Saturday morning, December 5th, our Chamberlain-Hunt Cadets were honored to participate in making Port Gibson's spirits bright. The Cadets, in their full dress uniform marched in the Port Gibson Main Street Christmas Parade. The battalion was lead by Cadet LTC Cleary.

Gingerbread House Competition

Every year, tradition calls for a bit of friendly competition among the Cadets. On Friday, December 3rd, groups of three and four were formed and given time to plan their creation for the gingerbread building competition. Some groups showed up with their blueprints in hand and began the process of creating a winning piece of art. Among the creations this year were buildings, the Great Wall of China, a robot, and a pyramid of Egypt. One gingerbread creation was selected from each company. The sculptors of the winning creation then were in a race against the two companies to be the first to completely eat their gingerbread creation without the use of their hands. Cadre such as the Commandant, TACs and teachers got involved in the sugar festivities.

Paintball War

On Friday, December 3rd, the battalion was divided into teams by company and given the opportunity to practice several different strategies and tactical maneuvers as part of a paintball competition that lasted several hours. The outcome of battle, everyone enjoyed the exercise and everyone survived!

This Week's Scripture & Catechism

1 Thessalonians 4:14

For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

WSC 36 What benefits do believers receive from Christ at death?

A. The souls of believers are at their death made perfect in holiness, and do immediately pass into glory; and their bodies, being still united in Christ, do rest in their graves, till the resurrection.

It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas

The Cadets had a fun time putting up Christmas decorations around campus on Friday, December 3rd. Christmas music was playing over the intercom for the everyone to get into the holiday spirit. They decorated the back porch of Guthrie Hall with two Christmas wreaths, garlands and big red bows. The Eatatorium was decorated with lights, tinsel and spray on snow for the windows. The DFAC was also decorated with garlands, big ornaments and two beautiful Christmas trees.
