Senior Profile: Cadet Dillon Bogenreif

Dillon James Bogenreif, from Yorba Linda, CA, has been a Cadet since his freshman year. He is currently in Alpha Company and serves as aide de camp to LTC Granville, Chamberlain-Hunt's chief of staff and athletic director.

The Cadre and Administration have recognized Cadet Bogenreif's many achievements with various awards. Last year he received the Bowen Bible Scholarship and was the first recipient of the Cadre Scholarship Award. He has also earned following awards: Military Excellence, Spirit of Learning, President's List, Commandant's List, Survivor Award, Marksmanship Award, Sports Achievement Award, Commendation Award, Bible and Theology Award, Outstanding Musician Award, and subject area awards in Bible and in French.

“ My advice to new Cadets is to persevere in the Lord, for with him mountains become simple grains of sand. ”

Cadet Bogenreif is known for his musical talent on the violin, but is also an outstanding support to the varsity basketball team as its wingman and manager.

While he misses life in California, he enjoys the camaraderie among the Cadets and the relationships he has developed with cadre members. For example, acknowledging LTC Granville's influence over the years, Cadet Bogenreif says, “He is a role model for me—he is loyal to Christ, a godly man and always kind and gentle when dealing with others. He always has an open ear and is extremely merciful to all.”

Next year, Cadet Bogenreif plans to study classics and philosophy in college. After that, he wants to go to seminary for both an MA and a PhD. Eventually he would like to teach at the collegiate level.
