This Week's Scripture & Catechism

1 Corinthians 10:31

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

WSC 29 What is the chief end of man?

A. Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever.

2010-11 Opening Invocation

Monday morning the Cadets and Cadre celebrated the new school year with a ring. The Cadets stood in formation in front of McComb Hall while COL Johnston welcomed the new school year. COL Patterson announced the new Battalion Staff and COL West handed over the new flag that will fly over the school this year. As a mark of their last year as a high school student the seniors rang the bell that sits in front of campus.

Rank Ceremony

Chamberlain-Hunt had its annual rank ceremony on Friday night in the auditorium of McComb Hall. Rank is issued on the basis of leadership qualities, seniority, and grade. The Cadets (listed on left) will hold the positions of military leadership for the 2010-2011 school year.

The Story of Sam Mason

COL West told the story of Sam Mason and his unscrupulous behavior to the Cadet Corps on Saturday morning. Sam Mason lived a life filled with stealing and trickery without regard for possible consequences. In the end, his own friends cut off his head and turned it in for a reward. The bronze statue of Sam Mason's head on campus reminds everyone that we should remember that all our "actions have consequences."
