A Lesson In Etiquette

Remember these exhortations: "Take smaller bites," "Don't put your elbows on the table," "Sit up straight." Some of the Cadets have been reminded.

On Tuesday, in preparation for the Winter Formal, eight Cadets were selected to participate in an etiquette class with Mrs. Cade and Ms. Oldenburg. The selected Cadets sat at the banquet table in the White House behind full place settings in order to learn the proper etiquette for formal dining.

Some families may be surprised to learn that there are also a few girls receiving an education at Chamberlain-Hunt Academy. There are 8 girls enrolled in middle and high school who are attending classes at Brashear Hall--in the annex of First Presbyterian Church, Port Gibson. They receive excellent instruction from Mr. Davis and Mrs. Abraham. Typically, they have little interaction with the Cadets. On Saturday, however, that changed. Just before the Cadets' class in etiquette the ladies also had an etiquette class of their own. "Ladies first."

Brashear Hall Ladies Host A Winter Formal

The ladies of Chamberlain-Hunt Academy, along with 8 Cadets, participated in the first Brashear Hall Winter Formal on Saturday. The banquet took place in Brashear Hall.

The Cadets looked handsome in their Class A uniforms, but the ladies stole the show. Everyone enjoyed the evening. Entertainment included a slide show featuring the sixteen students and a lively Scottish country dance led by LTC and Mrs. Quentin Johnston.

French Camp Students and CHA Cadets Play Paintball

An exciting part of the wilderness training for Cadets is paintball. Many acres on campus, whether field or wooded area, are utilized for the sport. Mr. Marion and 14 students from French Camp Academy visited Chamberlain-Hunt on Saturday to play paintball together with five of Chamberlain-Hunt's veteran Cadets. They played speedball, woods ball, and capture the house.

MSG Slayton, who is in charge of wilderness training, said, "It was great weather on Saturday. The students and Cadets got along well playing against one another and in blended teams." MSG Slayton said that Mr. Todd's team challenged our Cadets in a round of speedball. The odds were 3 to 1 against the Cadets. "We've developed such skills in the Cadets that even against great odds, the Cadets were able to win the game. This was a real good day for the Chamberlain-Hunt and French Camp family, and I hope events like this will continue to happen in the future because they help build a closer bond between the two schools."

This Week's Scripture and Catechism: Psalm 14:3

They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.

WSC 18:

Q. Wherein consists the sinfulness of that estate wherein man fell?

A. The sinfulness of that estate wherein man fell, consists in the guilt of Adam's first sin, the want of original righteousness, and the corruption of his whole nature, which is commonly called Original Sin; together with all actual transgressions which proceed from it.
