Founders' Day Recap

Last Friday, Chamberlain-Hunt celebrated the legacy of Dr. Jeremiah Chamberlain and Mr. David Hunt with a ceremony in historic Oakland Chapel on the campus of Alcorn State University. The Founders' Day Convocation each year reminds us of the pioneering spirit, piety, generosity, industry and integrity of two great men and encourages us to follow in their footsteps.

After the congregation sang "For All the Saints," Dr. Ligon Duncan, senior minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Jackson, gave a challenging address on leadership. The ASU Men's Choral sang two selections. Dr. Malvin Williams, interim ASU president, accepted The Chamberlain Award on behalf of the ASU community in memory of their late president, Dr. Clinton Bristow, Jr. The Hunt Award was given to Mr. John M. Armstrong, Jr., CHA class of 1941, who recently established a scholarship fund at Chamberlain-Hunt.

After the ceremony everyone enjoyed a catfish lunch, complete with peach cobbler for dessert, back on the Chamberlain-Hunt campus. Cadets helped guests feel at home as they mingled together during lunch. Then, back to class...

NOTE: Cadets must be picked up for Fall Break at noon on Friday, October 12. Each Cadet must return in uniform between 1:00 and 4:00 on Monday, October 22.

Catechism Question and Bible Verse memory work for the Week of October 8

Q. Which is the second commandment?
A. The second commandment is, Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments. (Exodus 20:4-6)
