Victorious in Basketball

19 November 2007

If the first game is any indication of how the remaining season will go, Chamberlain-Hunt's basketball team will prove to be one of the best around. The junior varsity team started off the evening with a quick victory scoring 46 points to Tallulah Academy's 24 points.

The varsity team came in and finished off the win with a score of 64 to 22, beating Tallulah Academy's varsity team into the ground. Kory White (LA) scored 19; Chris Callahan (AR) and Dayne Rickels (MS), 12; David Hahn (TX) and Andre Jeffery (TX), 8; Chase Whittemore (FL), 3 and Oliver Sinquefield (MS), 2. The matches were fast and furious as Chamberlain-Hunt's boys nearly shut them down in the very first quarter.

A good time was had by the Cadets as well as the families and Cadre who also attended. Spirits soared for the winning team as they left to return to the Academy Monday evening. Congrats, Cadets!

Quail Hunt Success

COL Blanton and LTC West led the first quail and clay shooting expedition of nine Cadets: C. Callahan (AR), J. Cherry (LA), E. Clark (LA), D. Daughtry (FL), T. Fulton (CA), S. Gable (MS), L. Kemp (MS), D. Rickels (MS) and T. Toppino (LA).

The Willows in Robinsville, MS (just outside Tunica) is the home of tournament clay shoots. Cadets shot the fourteen station course twice. Rickels and Fulton were the best shots, both scoring nearly 60%. Friday morning was the quail shoot, and everyone shot at least one bird. After Thanksgiving COL Blanton will host the boys for a quail dinner so they can enjoy the fruit of their "labor." All agreed it was a fun trip.

The next shooting expedition is scheduled for 25-26 January 2008.

Next Scheduled Basketball Game:

Wednesday, November 28 @ 1400 @Riverfield Tourney
