MSGT Daniel Slayton

Wilderness Director

MSGT Daniel Slayton has been employed at Chamberlain-Hunt for a few years, but he has been a fixture on campus since 1991, when he became a Cadet as a 4th grader. Attending for nine years, he holds the record as having been a Cadet longer than anyone else in the history of Chamberlain-Hunt. When he graduated in 2000, MSGT Slayton was as commander for Alpha Company; he also played football and ran track.

MSGT Slayton returned to Chamberlain-Hunt in 2003, and currently serves as the wilderness director, holding the rank of Master Sergeant. In addition to the maintaining our 70 acre wilderness area and confidence and high-ropes courses, MSGT Slayton cares for Willy, our safety dog. He will be the head track coach this year and has led several runners to the State track meet for the past two years. As a Cadet, he won the James O. Brady track award, several Coach's awards and an MVP award.

When MSGT Slayton is not directing intramurals, mentoring Cadets or in-processing new Cadets, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Kasey, and 1 year old son, Henry. MSGT Slayton also enjoys hunting, fishing and riding horses on his farm. He is finishing his last year in secondary mathematics education at Alcorn State University. To help satisfy his requirements for graduation and also to help junior high Cadets get a boost in preparing them for the fall semester, he did some student teaching during Adventure Summer School.

9-11 Observed at Chamberlain-Hunt

Cadets gathered on the parade deck on September 11th to raise the flags at half mast in memory of the lives lost during the terrorist attacks on America on 11 September 2001 and also to honor the troops who have served to keep our country free and safe.
